About the workshop:

Goa is an amazing holiday destination with beautiful natural beauty in the form of beaches, sea-views, quaint villages, lush greenery, paddy fields, rivers and waterfalls and the list is endless.

Join us in exploring the South of Goa and its hidden gems as your watercolour mentors show you their tips and techniques on how to handle this versatile and beautiful medium. Each day will have 2 sessions, a good mix of plein air and studio where you will be able to watch and paint along with the mentors. You will also get feedback and interactive sessions on your paintings from the mentors everyday.

Our Mentors:

Sanghamitra Roy Majumder is a self taught watercolour artist who has participated in many painting exhibitions and competitions and has got many awards like International Watercolour Society - Bangladesh, Vietnam, Ukraine, Czech Republic etc and from National Art Contests. Her paintings are now in the collection of art lovers from India,

Europe and Dubai. Sanghamitra connects most with watercolour medium for its spontaniety and transparency.

Shikha Garg is an internationally acclaimed watercolour artist and illustrator. She represents India at Fabriano Inacquarello, Italy - the largest watercolour convention in the world. She has been painting with watercolour for the last 7 years and has exhibited her work in several countries including India,

USA, Italy, UAE, Vietnam, Ukraine, Nepal, Bangladesh and Malaysia. She is best known for her florals and still life but she also enjoys sketching and painting on her many travels.

Itinerary

DAY 1 • Thursday 20th March 2025

Start of our journey together at Panjim at the hotel by check-in time of 1pm. We can help you arrange your transport to the hotel from the airport or train station on extra payment (on actuals) if notified in advance.

Evening walking guided tour of fascinating Fontainhas, a historic neighborhood in Panjim, known for its well-preserved Portuguese-style architecture.

We will get the opportunity to sketch and paint during the tour and get guidance on how to develop a sketchbook when you travel.

Dinner is at any of the amazing restaurants in the area, everyone is free to explore options.

DAY 2 • Friday 21th March 2025

Post breakfast and check-out, enjoy a guided cultural tour of Old Goa. A painting session at one of the iconic churches post our tour. Lunch will be around Old Goa or on the way as we all leave for South Goa. Check into our beautiful beach resort and rest. Evening art session at resort or our own beach and buffet dinner at resort.

DAY 3 • Saturday 22th March 2025

Today we will depart very early from our resort with a packed breakfast. Explore some beautiful beaches of South Goa that have stunning views. Spend the morning painting picturesque fisherman boats and coconut trees and eat a lovely meal at the beach shacks. Return to the hotel for an afternoon siesta. Evening trip to explore Madgaon and painting session. Dinner on the way back to resort.

DAY 4 • Sunday 23th March 2025

Early morning departure to yet another stunning location for painting and exploration. Free time in the afternoon followed by painting - feedback session and display of all work in the evening.

DAY 5 • Monday 24th March 2025

Breakfast and check-out. Individuals can depart as per their travel plans. Again we can help with transfer to the airport or stations if requested in advance and at actual costs.
